INTRODUCTORY.

In presenting this Work to the Public, the Publisher deems it necessary to make a few explanatory remarks. Probably there is no department of book making in which errors are more likely to be made than in the compilation of a Directory. The constant change and new arrivals in our Western Cities, together with the total ignorance which many of our citizens are under of even the name the street they live in, combine to make the work far more difficult and troublesome than most people imagine. The canvassing having been done by Mr. EWING SUMMERS, the Publisher can, with confidence, assure his friends and patrons that he has taken the greatest pains and used his utmost exertions to have the Work accurate and complete, and he would here return his acknowledgement to Mr. SUMMERS for the manner in which he has discharged his duties as canvasser.

His thanks are also due to those who have favored him with their advertisements, and he trusts they will be pleased with the manner in which they are displayed.

In conclusion, the book is thrown upon a generous public, with the hope that whatever imperfections it may have, will be kindly overlooked, and that it may meet with the satisfactory reception which the Publisher has labored to achieve.

EDUCATIONAL.

Knox College and its Societies

Knox College.

This Institution, including its Academical Department, was chartered by the State Legislature at the session of 1836-37. The Academy was opened in the fall of 1838, with forty students.

There are three departments: Collegiate, Female Collegiate, and Academic.

The Main College edifice, containing chapel, recitation and lecture rooms, library, cabinet, laboratory and elocution rooms, stands at the head of Broad street, eighty rods south of the Public Square. On either side of the Main College stand Williston Hall and East College, furnishing rooms for about eighty students, and two commodious rooms for the literary societies of the College. Surrounding these buildings lie about seventeen acres of land, designed for play grounds and ornamental trees.

Directly in front of the College grounds proper, and between the main College and Female Seminary, lies the College Park of about nine acres.

The Seminary building, a large brick edifice, contains a chapel, recitation rooms, parlors, music, drawing and painting rooms, beside rooms for the accommodation of between eighty and ninety young lady boarders.

The present Academy building is a commodious two-story edifice, situated on the Public Square.

FACULTY.—Rev. Willliam Stanton Curtis, D., D., President and Professor Intellectual Philosophy, Constitutional and International Law; Rev. Willis J. Beecher, Professor of Moral Philosophy, Rhetoric and Elocution; Innes Grant, A. M., Professor of Ancient Languages and Literature; Henry E. Hitchcock, A. M., Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy in the Female Collegiate Department; Albert Hurd, A. M., Professor of Natural Sciences; M. L. Comstock, A. M., Professor of Mathematics and Librarian; George Churchill, A. M., Principal of the Preparatory Department; James H. Worman, Instructor in French and German; Oliver H. Pitcher, Tutor; Miss Sarah H. Hatch, Principal of the Female

Collegiate Department; Miss Mary L. Hatch, Instructor in the Piano Forte and cultivation of the voice; Mrs. R. K. Colby, Instructor in Drawing and Painting; Mrs. S. N. Grose, Instructor in Penmanship.

COLLEGE FACULTY.—Rev. William S. Curtis, D. D., President; Innes Grant, A. M.; Albert Hurd, A. M.; M. L. Comstock, A. M.; Rev. Willis J. Beecher; Oliver H. Pitcher, A. B.

Female Collegiate Department.

For this Department a regular course of study has been arranged, occupying three years, and embracing such branches as are usually pursued in the higher Female Seminaries.

FACULTY.—Rev. William S. Curtis, D. D.; Henry E. Hitchcock, A. M.; Miss Sarah H. Hatch, Miss Mary L. Hatch.

OFFICERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUST.—Rev. William S. Curtis, D. D., President; N. H. Losey, A. M., Secretary; O. S. Pitcher, Treasurer.

Societies of Knox College.

THE GNOTHAUTII OF KNOX COLLEGE.—In the earlier days of Knox College, but one Literary Society existed in the Institution. In the course of time, however, as the number of students and general prosperity of the College increased, a second organization became a matter of absolute necessity, as the history of the two societies since the formation of the Gnothautii fully shows. On the 1st of November, 1849, the Gnothautii Society was organized in the lecture room of Williston Hall, the following constituting the charter members, viz: Robert J. Adcock, W. H. Eurrard, Edward P. Chambers, George Churchill, Milton L. Comstock, Peter Fenity, H. G. Ferris, Alexander Gower, Thos. H. Hutchinson, Edward A. Lyon, James C. McMurtry, S. B. Shumway, Wilson T. Smith and Erastus C. Wilcox. Immediately after its organization it was chartered. The Society Hall in "East College" is neatly and tastefully furnished. Life-size busts of Webster, Clay, Douglas and Lincoln are numbered among its decorations. The Society Library, situated in the main college buildings, comprises 998 volumes; there being also connected therewith a reading room, where the most popular dailies, weeklies and monthlies are found. The Society, from its very organization has exercised an important influence in college affairs. Concerning the aims and objects of the Gnothautii, it is only necessary to say that they are appropriately expressed in its name and motto. The Society appeals with pride to the history of its members. They constitute a bright galaxy in the nation's honor, and worthy examples in the peaceful walks of life. The past history of the Gnothautii is one of which it may well be proud. Its present is pre-eminently prosperous, numbering twenty seven members, united and strong; its future is full of hope. The following is a list of the present officers:

Joseph B. Bates, President; Thomas R. Willard, Vice President; Steven Marsh, Cor. Secretary; W. G. Morts, Rec. Secretary; Chester W. Jones, Treasurer; F. M. Hayner, Librarian.

THE ADELPHI OF KNOX COLLEGE.—The Adelphi of Knox College was organized in the spring of 1846. An act of incorporation was procured and a charter obtained from the Legislature of the State, May 31st, 1847. By its charter the Society is entitled to possess property to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars. ($25,000.) Only the students of Knox College are eligible to membership. The annual public exhibition of the Adelphi is held at the close of the Fall Term. In 1849 a number of members withdrew from the Adelphi and organized a new society under the name of Gnothautii. The regular meetings of the society are held on Wednesday evenings of each week. The literary exercises consist of debates, poems, orations, essays, declamations and dramatic readings. The Society Hall in the "West College" building is neatly and tastefully furnished. The library numbers some 1000 volumes, and is open to all the students. Over three hundred members have been connected with the Adelphi since its formation, and its present condition is most prosperous. The present officers are:

C. H. Lawrence, President; A. M. Chase, Vice President; E. P. Gates, Corresponding Secretary; H. B. Bergen, Recording Secretary; R. E. Heller, Treasurer; T. E. Pope, Librarian. Number of members, fifteen.

Lombard University and its Societies.

Lombard University.

Situated on Lombard street, between College and Maiden Lane. The present charter of the Institution was adopted by the stockholders in June, 1857. Previous to that time it was known as the Illinois Liberal Institute, which was chartered in 1851. The University building is a gothic structure, 80 x 60 feet, three stories in height, and contains twelve rooms, besides a Chapel 60 x 75 feet, with a gallery. It has spacious rooms for Libraries, Apparatus, Music, Lectures and recitations. It is the purpose of Lombard University to afford to students of both sexes equal opportunities for thorough courses of instruction; and the studies pursued have been arranged:

First, To provide a full College course of four years, such as is usually pursued in the best Colleges and Universities in this country.

Second, To accommodate those to whose circumstances it may be deemed specially adapted, with a Scientific course, so arranged as to secure the best intellectual culture and discipline attainable in three years' time.

Third, To afford a thorough preparation, either for a Scientific or a College Course.

Fourth, To meet the wants of those who have not previously enjoyed opportunities for good academic instruction, and who are unable to pursue either of the regular courses of the Institution.

FAULTY.—Rev. James P. Weston, D. D., President, Professor of Intellectual and Moral Philosophy; Rev. William Livingston, A. M., Professor of Natural Science; Isaac A. Parker, A. M., Professor of Ancient Languages; John V. N. Standish, A. M., Professor of Mathematics and Practical Astronomy; Mrs. J. V. N. Standish, Professor of French and Italian, and teacher of Drawing and Painting; Isaac B. Choate, A. B., Tutor; Albert Shindelmeiser, Mrs. C. S. Kendall, Teachers of Instrumental and Vocal Music; John Baptist Schmid, Ph. D., Teacher of German.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.—President, Rev. James P. Weston, D. D. Instructors: Rev. William Livingston, A. M.; Isaac A. Parker, A. M.; John V. N. Standish, A. M., Mrs. J. V. N. Standish, Albert Shindelmeiser, John Baptist Schmid.

OFFICERS OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.—Lauren C. Conger, President; Alfred Knowles, Secretary; David Sanborn, Treasurer; C. P. West, General Agent.

Societies of Lombard University.

THESMENOSIAN COURT.—The Thesmenosian Court was organized in 1859, having for its object the mooted cases of law, every Saturday afternoon, by the college students exclusively. This Society has a Library of 40 law books and 160 histories. Initiation fee, $1. Fines vary with offence. Dues, 50 cents per College term. Acting members, 15; number is limited to 20.
J. S. McConnell, Judge; B. F. Hodges, Sheriff; R. Cooper, Clerk; E. W. Claycomb, Treasurer; W. B. Garlock, Librarian.

EROSOPHIAN SOCIETY.—The Erosophian Society is a Literary organization, founded in 1858; has 150 books, miscellaneous. Initiation, $1. Dues, 25 cents per College quarter. Number of members, 15.

E. W. Glaycomb, President; H. M. Chase, Vice President; Geo. Woodworth, Secretary; Rans Cooper, Treasurer and Librarian.

PHI SIGMA SOCIETY.—Motto, Dum vivimus vivamus. Founded 1857. Object, social advancement and fraternal feeling in College life. Acting members, 10.

OFFICERS.—George R. Shook, Pantacrat; J. S. McConnell, Vice President and Treasurer; J. A. Gates, Secretary; E. W. Claycomb, Sergeant at Arms.

ZETECALIAN SOCIETY.—This Society was organized June 25th, 1863, by the ladies of Lombard University. On account of the accommodations afforded by the present building, there is no room which can be used exclusively by the Society, but they meet regularly every Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in Professor Parker's recitation room. Notwithstanding the difficulties under which they have labored in having no "Society Home," there are now 21 active members. The officers are as follows:

Emma N. H. Conger, President; Mary E. Weston, Vice President; Mary Stevens, Secretary; Jennie Seyers, Treasurer.

Schools and Libraries.

Public Schools.

The Public Schools of Galesburg are under the control of a Board of Education consisting of the Mayor of the city, who is ex-officio, chairman, six members, one from each ward. Two members of the Board retire each year, their successors being chosen at a general election on the first Monday in June. The present Board are:—

Other School Officers: William A. Wood, Clerk of the Board; Isaac Delano, Treasurer; Junius B. Roberts, Superintendent.

The Schools are divided into the High School, the Central, and four Ward Schools. The High School building, which will also accommodate the Central, is in process of building, and is to be completed before September 1st, 1866. The plans were furnished by G. P. Randall, Architect, of Chicago. The estimated cost, when complete, is about $35,000, at present prices. The building will contain ten school rooms, each 27 x 33, seating about sixty pupils each. In the third story is a large hall, 40 x 66 feet. The general shape of the building is that of the capital letter T, the extreme length each way being 83 x 89. At about the middle of the right flank stands a tower, which in the second story affords a recitation room, in the third a retiring room from the hall, and above, a belfry. The top of the tower is surrounded by a balustrade, and being easily accessible by stairways, will at an elevation of 83 feet, afford a fine view of the surrounding country. The building will be heated by four furnaces situated in the basement. The arrangements for ventilation are as perfect as, with present knowledge, it is possible to make them.

The entire number of names registered during the school year from September, 1862, to June, 1863, was 1264; from September, 1863, to June, 1864, 1484; from September, 1864, to June, 1865, 1519. The average number of teachers employed is about eighteen.

The following is a list of the Teachers employed during the school year from September, 1864, to June, 1865:
